Invitation

Dear Industry Partners,

Greetings from the Kakinada Obstetric & Gynaecological Society!

It gives us immense pleasure in inviting you to participate in the APCOG 2025, the prestigious 10th Annual Conference of Andhra Pradesh Obstetrics & Gynaecology on 12th -&13th July 2025, at Rangaraya Medical College Kakinada.

This idyllic venue, offering a perfect blend of historical charm and modern facilities, ensuring an exceptional experience for all attendees.

This conference will showcase some of the best contemporary practices of all times in the field of gynaecologists and will be attended by over 1000 delegates and eminent faculty from India and across the globe.

This will be a great opportunity for you to connect and interact with an array of leading Indian and international experts and key opinion makers to showcase your products and services. The unique design of exhibition areas interspersed with the conference halls will ensure maximum interaction between trade partners and delegates.

The organising committee will leave no stone unturned in making your participation a pleasant and highly profitable experience. We once again inviting you to participate in the mega event and reserve the premium areas to maximize your exposure. Please block your dates from 12th & 13th July 2025 and make it a point to meet us at this conference.

Looking forward to seeing you in Kakinada! Thanks, in advance.

VENUE INFORMATION

RANGARAYA MEDICAL COLLEGE

Rangaraya Medical College is a Government Medical College in Andhra Pradesh. It was established in 1958 and is in Kakinada, Andhra Pradesh, India. It is affiliated to Dr NTR University of Health Sciences. The Rangaraya Medical College was inaugurated on 17 November 1958 by Sri. Neelam Sanjeeva Reddy, then Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh. One hundred students were admitted in the first year. Their teaching work for first MBBS was initiated on 15 August 1958 by Dr V. S. Krishna, vice chancellor of Andhra University. Dr Datla Satyanarayana Raju and Dr M. V. Krishna Rao founded and registered the Medical Education Society on 16 April 1958. Mullapudi Harishchandra Prasad of Sri Mullapudi Venkata Rayudu Memorial Educational Trust of Tanuku offered a donation of ₹5 lakh. The college was named after his late brother-in-law Sri. Pendyala Ranga Rao, zamindar of Dommeru. He became the vice president of the society. Sri Kotamarthi Venkanna gifted 6.5 acres of land, now called Kotamarthi Park on which stands the present men's hostels. Sri Draksharama Choultry Trust gave a donation of ₹50,000 towards construction of a lecture hall. Rao Venkata Kumara Mahipati Surya Rau, the Maharaja of Pithapuram, leased the palatial orphanage buildings (now the Main Campus) to house the Medical College. Two lecture halls and a dissection hall were constructed. The Government General Hospital would serve as the teaching hospital. The formal inauguration of the Rangaraya Medical College was done on 17 November 1958 by Sri. N. Sanjeeva Reddy, the then chief minister of Andhra Pradesh. Sports and cultural festivals were conducted involving colleges around the state, the most recent one being "NEXUS" conducted in 2010. Neonatology course was added by MCI in 2012 making it the first medical college in Andhra Pradesh and eighth in the India to provide D.M. Neonatology.
